Chase Morrin, 14 years old, has been composing and playing piano for almost six years. He is the youngest musician ever to receive the national ASCAP (American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers) Young Jazz Composer Award and was honored among the jazz greats of our country at the Lincoln Center in New York. He was recently given the Herb Alpert Emerging Young Artist Scholarship. In addition to The Chase Morrin Jazz Trio, Chase plays in a number of ensembles around town.

Brian has been playing music for 41 years, starting when he was 8. He played with the Michigan state jazz band for two years. In San Diego, Brian has played with Jaime Valle, the late Hollis Gentry, Yavaz, various big bands and small combos. Brian has been playing with the Chris Klich Quintet for the last 8 years.

Bob Daniel's professional start in music began with the Air Force Band from 1964-1968. Bob plays with his own group, The People's Republic of Jazz, and with the best of the local jazz scene: Karin Carson, Josh White, Doug Walker, Bryan Whelan, Ian Tordella, Jay Jay Lim, Harley Magsino, Melonie Sacalamitao, Justin Grinnell, Rob Thorsen, Jeff Denson, Joey Carano, Travis Daudert, Tim Nunnink, Jeff Miles, Gary Lefebvre, and many more! Bob also plays with a number of big bands.
