

Take a unique journey into the world of jazz...

Listen to some great jazz and support musical education in one fell swoop! Alumni of the UC San Diego Jazz Camp, including the Chase Morrin Trio, Chris Burgess, Ian Buss, Michael Armstrong, Ryan Linvill, David Negrete, Nazo Zakkak, Nick Tocco, and others are performing for one night only in support of the camp's scholarship fund.

The UC San Diego Jazz Camp is a five-day summer program for intermediate to advanced level musicians ages 14 to Adult. The ninth annual edition of the camp runs June 19-24. The extraordinary faculty of leading jazz improvisers and educators breaks down the boundaries between "inside" and "outside," sharpening performance skills and enriching the student's experience of jazz as a broad spectrum of options for musical expression.
